Prepare for Call to Worship

*Call to Worship

Leader: Come to our God, all who hunger for freedom:

People: for it is God who nourishes us at the Table of Grace that offers true freedom.

Leader: Come to our God, all who are worn out by life:

People: for it is God who provides the rest we need.

Leader: Come to our God, all who are weighed down:

People: for it is our God who carries our burdens with us.

All: Amen!

Call to Confession (Please be seated.)

Prayer of Confession

God of mercy and freedom, we come before You on this Independence weekend grateful for the liberties we celebrate, yet mindful of the burdens we still carry. You send a humble King who rides in peace, and You call us—worn travelers—to lay down our heavy loads. Still, we cling to worries, resentments, and fears that keep us from the rest You promise. You name us prisoners of hope, yet we often choose the familiar chains of self-reliance, pride, and division.

Forgive us, Lord. Free us from whatever keeps us from You. Restore us to the spacious, gentle way of Christ, in whom true freedom is found. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

*Please stand as you are comfortable and able.

Mark Your Calendars:

Now is the time to make your reservations for these two upcoming events for our congregation:

Thursday, July 16: Join others from Trinity at Columbia's Agriculture Park at 1769 W. Ash St. for a private tour of the new Welcome Center and the Urban Farm. Parking is readily available. We'll meet in front of the Welcome Center at 10:00 a.m. The tour will last about an hour. Please let Debbie Newkirk know this week if you'd like to attend.

Saturday, July 25: We'll travel to Macon, MO, to see the matinee performance of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" featuring former Trinity choir member and Scholarship Singer, Anthony Blatter, as Schroeder. Tickets are $45.00 for the main level; $35.00 for balcony seating. After the play, we'll gather at the Pear Tree Restaurant in Macon for dinner. Carpooling can be arranged. Please contact Fellowship Committee Chair Debbie Newkirk at (573) 673-8997 by July 10 to make your reservation.

Festival of Sharing School Kits: Pick up a cloth bag (or two) from the table in the church lobby then purchase the school supplies on the list in the bag. Remember, only the items on the list may be included in the kit. Return the filled bags to Trinity by the end of August.
