*Call to Worship

Leader: Come, beloved of God. The Holy One still speaks truth that endures, a word tested by peace and rooted in faithfulness.

People: We open our hearts to the true word of God.

We open our arms, to welcome God's people.

Leader: Christ meets us in every act of welcome, in every cup of water offered with love.

People: We receive the presence of Christ in all who come.

Leader: Let us worship the One who sends prophets with courage and disciples with compassion.

People: We worship the God whose kingdom grows through truth and simple acts of grace.

All: Amen!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

In your house, there is room for all; at your Table, a place is set for us. Yet we confess, Inviting God, that we do not welcome others as freely as you do. Like the prophet who longed for words of peace, we prefer comforting illusions, even though your truth is known by the justice and faithfulness it produces. Our lives do not always bear such fruit. You fling wide the doors to your kingdom, Welcoming God, but we try to close them to those who differ from us. Your heart is open to all, and we remember our ungracious words and deeds. Forgive us, God of every person. Heal our brokenness;

Benediction
